MIB Golf Tournament – Butte Country Club

The Butte Country Club was established in 1899 as the first country club in Montana. It was the first golf course in the state and the first course to boast all grass fairways and greens. The golf course was originally located east of what is now Blacktail Lane and south of Elizabeth Warren Avenue. At that time, Lake Avoca extended north from Elizabeth Warren Avenue to what is now the green on Hole #4. After Lake Avoca was drained, the course was moved to its present location and converted to the grounds you see here today. It’s amazing that the entire bottom portion of present holes 1, 2, 3, 4,13 and 15 was at one time submerged under Lake Avoca. Although over a century has passed since its inception, Butte Country Club continues to be a recreational and social pillar within the city and surrounding community. Cost for the 18-hole tourney is $60 which includes green fees, a golf cart, balls, scorecards, a scoreboard, and boxed lunch. Learn more about this course at <https://www.buttecountryclub.org/golf/>

100 Foot Mine Tour

Take the bus and step back in time to the early mining days in Butte. Visit the open pit mine, mansions, mine yards and finish with a sip at the brewery. Listen as the bus tour guide takes you back in time.

Venture 100 feet to see the original shaft station and the Orphan Girl vein, one of the few exposed veins in North America viewable by the public. The tour guides will lead you through the drift sharing stories as you venture 100 feet into the 2700-foot deep Orphan Girl Mine. Many other surprises wait for our guests at the 100 foot level.

There is a 22% slope although there are no stairs. Tour takes 1.5 hours. Close toed shoes and a light jacket highly recommended. The Orphan Girl 100 Foot Level Tour takes you to the original workings of the mine. Mud is likely.

Children age 5 and under are restricted. Limited Seating.

Trap Shooting

Always wanted to test your skills in shooting? Join the adventure to the Butte Trap Club for an afternoon of practicing shooting clay pigeons, followed by an Annie Oakley Shootout Contest. No experience necessary, instructors will be on hand to assist you. Price includes gun, clay pigeons and shells.

Prizes will be given and non alcoholic soft drinks will be available.

This event space is very limited and will be first come basis.
